GENERAL RULES FOR SAUNA BATHING

These „golden rules“ released by the „Deutscher Sauna-Bund e.V.“, Bielefeld should especially help sauna bathing newcomers to make full use of the sauna and to take full advantage of its positive effect. Sauna bathing may be helpful in many cases of health problems, but there are several diseases for which cases it is not recommended or better prohibited. Therefore newcomers with health problems should consult a doctor with experiences in sauna bathing in advance. The right procedure is offered by the general rules for sauna bathing released by the „Deutscher Sauna-Bund e.V.“, displayed in many public sauna baths.

1. Please note, that sauna bathing is not a regulated and controlled bath. Principally sauna lovers should feel comfortable. Thus, practiced users could also extend duration of sauna bathing. Please look after your personal well-being.
2. You should bring enough time with you. The duration of a complete sauna bathing treatment takes about two hours. You should relax. To push on the treatment could stress instead of supporting the relaxing effect. You should not be hungry but also not have a full stomach.
3. First of all, please take a shower and after that dry yourself off well as dry skin sweats more effectively. A warm footbath helps you to relax and encourages sweating.
4. Place your sauna towel under the whole of your body and choose the middle or upper bench according to taste. The stay should be short but intensive. Eight to 15 minutes ought to be enough. You should always rely on your own perceptions and feelings. You should sit up straight for the last 2 minutes, the blood circulation has to re-adapt to the upright position.
5. Afterwards it is not recommended to take immediately a shower or to go in the plunge pool for cooling down. Go out in the fresh air, your body needs oxygen. After that it is recommended to cool the body by taking the dousing or Kneipp hose shower. Before using the pool please take a shower first to wash away the sweat.
6. After letting yourself cool down completely, a warm foot bath creates a pleasant feeling of warmth. Additional cold water applications train your blood vessels intensively and increase the resistance of your body.
7. After that a time of rest is recommended to support the recovery.
8. It is not recommended to take a drink during the sauna bath as the effect of purging is missing then. Using the solarium does not have any negative effects.
9. Procedure of additional sauna treatments is the same, but three subsequent sauna treatments are sufficient for reaching the desired health aims.
